BURGLARS VISIT PISER STORE; GET $2,500 IN GOODS

Use Crow-Bar to Pry Open
Door—Robbery Discovered
By Proprietor.

Burglars broke into the Abraham Piser store at the corner of Smith and Fourth sts., Tuesday morning between 3 and 4 o'clock and stole about $2,500 worth of stock, consisting of clothing, suits, trousers and overcoats. The discovery of the theft was made about 7:30 o'clock when Abraham Piser, proprietor, came down from his living apartments to open the store. He found the front door open, having been pried with a crow-bar, and the goods gone. He immediately stepped to the telephone and called the police station. Officers were immediately sent to the scene to investigate.

The police stated to a News-Times representative that Mr. Coppens, who lives across the street, is of the opinion that the robbery was committed between three and four o'clock in the morning, as he heard an automobile backing into the building, but thought nothing of it. Mr. Piser and his family reside above the store.

GETS 30 DAYS IN JAIL FOR USING OBSCENE LANGUAGE

Norman Pratt, Dale st., was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail by Judge Feig Tuesday for using obscene language in the presence of females. Pratt was arrested on the complaint of Emmett Crakes who testified that the offense was committed in the presence of his wife and Nellie Brady. Three state witnesses including Mrs. Pratt gave evidence. Judge Feig severely lectured Pratt on the seriousness of the charge against him. The prisoner solemnly swore he would never taste liquor again. It being alleged that he was intoxicated at the time of the offense.
